

Schedule Keeps Seattleites Busy at Bach Festival

By MARY JANE JACOBS

A NOTE FROM Mrs. Reginald Morgan, who has been at the Bach Festival in Carmel, Calif., tells of attending rehearsals, lectures, symposiums, concerts and after-concert parties—a full schedule for any music-lover.

Mrs. Morgan drove to Carmel from Portland, Ore., with Burnetta Mazzolini, a soloist at the festival. Miss Mazzolini, who has appeared here several times, did soprano roles in the Bach Mass in B Minor, Handel's Oratorio, "Saul," and Mozart arias with the orchestra at the festival.

MRS. REGINALD MORGAN

Among Seattleites Mrs. Morgan saw were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Moore (he directs the Seattle Choral).

In addition to the musical part of her trip, Mrs. Morgan attended a picnic given by the R. W. Marsh family of Pacific Grove, who formerly made their home in Fauntleroy.

The annual garden party of the Seattle branch of the English-Speaking Union is scheduled for August 10 at the home of Mr. R. D. Merrill. There will be a tea from 4:30 to 7 o'clock, with a buffet supper beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Reservations for the buffet should be made by August 7 with Mrs. James R. Ryan, or through the English-Speaking Union.

HONORING: A visitor from Fairfax, Va., Mrs. Dixon Rice, will be honored at two parties this week, an open house Saturday given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Shannon, and a luncheon tomorrow at the Seattle Tennis Club, given by Mrs. Frank D. Black.

Mrs. Rice will share honors at the party Saturday with the Shannons' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shannon, who are home after a trip to Europe. The younger Shannons and their son, Allen, returned Sunday after a month abroad. Allen's two brothers, Bill, a senior at the University of Washington, and David, who attends Roosevelt High School, will stay in Europe another month.

Two other out-of-town guests will share honors with Mrs. Rice at Mrs. Black's luncheon tomorrow. Mrs. Robert Colinson (Elizabeth Clifford) of Inglewood, Calif., will come from Olympia, where she is visiting her parents, Superior Judge and Mrs. Raymond Clifford. Mrs. James Leader (Jeanne Budde) of Richmond, Calif., is here for a summer visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Budde. Mrs. Black and her three honor guests were Alpha Phi Sorority sisters at the University of Washington.

VISITING: Susan Lindsay, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy Lindsay, flew to California yesterday. She will spend two weeks in Menlo Park with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris (Betsy Lindsay), and their daughter, Ellen Lindsay.

Susan will return to Seattle with the Harrises and Ellen when they drive north to visit Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steele Lindsay. The Harrises are due August 6 for two weeks, and while they are here Ellen will celebrate her first birthday anniversary August 14.

DOWN UNDER: Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Mossman have returned after a trip that took them as far away as Sydney, Australia.

The Mossmans left the middle of June and, after a brief stop in Los Angeles, flew to Tahiti for a week. Next stop was Fiji, where they spent several days.

Still traveling by plane, the Mossmans went to Sydney, where they spent six days. The travelers took to the water for the next leg of their journey to Auckland, N. Z., thence to Honolulu. They flew home after a four-day rest in Hawaii.

IT'S A BOY: Mr. and Mrs. W. Thomas Porter, Jr. (Dixie Jo Thompson), are the parents of a son, Douglas Thompson, born Friday. The baby joins a sister, Kimberlee Paige. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. Thomas Porter of Bloomfield, N. J., and Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Thompson.

FOR A BRIDE: There are parties and more parties for Miss Marcia Levinson, who will become the bride of Mr. Howard B. Adler September 3 in Herzl Congregation. Their wedding dinner will be in the Spanish Ballroom of The Olympic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kollack, uncle and aunt of the prospective bridegroom, gave a cocktail party Saturday at the Glendale Golf and Country Club for the engaged couple, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gladstein gave a brunch for them at home Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Benezra and Mrs. Norman Walker will honor Miss Levinson at a luncheon Thursday, and Mrs. Sam Schwartz and her daughter, Miss Susie Glickman, will give one Saturday. Mrs. Robert Sachs and Mrs. Allen Rosen have a luncheon planned for August 10, and Mrs. Samson Kamel will give one August 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Katz, cousins of the prospective bridegroom, will give a dinner August 13. The rehearsal August 31 will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Joyle Adler, parents of the prospective bridegroom.

Others who have entertained for Miss Levinson are the Mesdames Robert Guston, Joyle Adler, Victor Wolfstone, Harold Zukor, Hershel Asia, Harold Miller, Joseph Dwojkin, M. Lawrence Brown, Milton Lewis, Nathan Feinberg, Robert Pinchev, Harry Buttnick, Al Ritt and Melvin Sichel.

Parties also were given by the Misses Toni Kaye, Barbara Bloch, Jill Block and Roberta Meltzer.

Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Adler and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Adler gave a dinner party for the couple.

DEAR ABBY: How Can I Become A Hollywood Star?

DEAR ABBY: Ever since I can remember I have wanted to be an actress. I am 16, and I know I have as much talent as anyone I have seen in the movies. But I can't get anyone to give me a break. Some people say you have to have lessons in dancing, singing, speech and even tumbling. I have read the success stories of all the big stars, and none of them took any lessons. They are just natural-born actresses who were discovered and got a break. Just what does it take to make the grade in Hollywood? I'll do anything.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

WANTS TO BE A STAR

DEAR WANTS: Don't you believe that all it takes to be a "star" is a break. Years of hard work and study are required. The dancing, singing and speech lessons will help you—if you have talent. If you haven't—the tumbling will prepare you for the fall.

DEAR ABBY: My beloved mother passed away a few months ago. From that awful day to this I have not shed one tear—in public. But, oftentimes when I am alone, my grief is uncontrollable.

All along, even at the funeral, I was able to talk about her without becoming emotional. I was the one who comforted my father and the rest of my family while I was being torn apart inside.

I am not looking for sympathy, but some people have said that I am hard and cold and could not have loved my mother very much. Abby, this is not true. I wish people would understand that it is possible to have very deep feelings without making a public spectacle of oneself. Whether you print my letter or not, I want to thank you for giving me someone to tell this to. Just writing this letter has helped me tremendously. A PRIVATE AFFAIR

DEAR ABBY: I would like your opinion of the following: Am I just old-fashioned, or is it all right for a dog to lick and kiss a small baby in the face and mouth? The baby is so small at present he isn't able to turn his head to protect himself.

I like dogs, but I can't stomach this. I was told by the baby's parents that there is nothing wrong with it. That a dog heals its own wounds this way. This may be true, but am I wrong in feeling this way? K. M.

DEAR K. M.: I think you are right. It is a disgusting sight, and who can say at any moment how healthy the dog (or baby) is?

CONFIDENTIAL TO RUTH: If the shoe fits, put it on, take a long walk and think it over.

What's YOUR problem? Write to Abigail Van Buren in care of The Times, Seattle 11, Wash. For a personal reply, please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
