

WORLD FAIR SITE: The white line on this aerial photograph shows the 90-acre site for the proposed 1960-61 World Fair. The Washington State World Fair Commission announced yesterday it is prepared to spend $2,500,000 to acquire the shaded area, including the Warren Avenue School. The city already owns a few parcels of land within the shaded area. (See Page 1 for details.)