

UNIT EIGHT Worksheet

Lesson 2: Where did it go?

Reading Historic Photographs

Name _____

Date _____

Photo Name: _____

Photo #: _____

Questions for analyzing historic photographs:

1. What's the first thing you notice about this photograph?
2. Do you recognize anything in this photograph? What?
3. Where was the photograph taken?
4. When was the photograph taken?
5. Who took this photograph? Who were they planning to show it to?
6. Why was the photograph was taken? For publicity? For official documentation?
For private use?
7. Write your own TITLE and CAPTION for this photograph. Your TITLE should be no more than 25 words long, and should describe the content of the photograph.

The CAPTION can be up to 150 words long, and should explain the significance of the photograph in telling the story of the creation of the 1962 Seattle World's Fair site. Include relevant information you figured out about the photograph. Please write your caption on the back of this sheet.